Painting of fourth through lane on westbound I-80/94 restricts lane

Work to progress in sections July 16 through early August

LAKE COUNTY, Ind. – The Indiana Department of Transportation (INDOT) will temporarily restrict one lane of westbound I-80/94 (the Borman Expressway) 8 p.m. to 5 a.m. July 16 through early August while a fourth through lane is painted on the roadway from the Illinois state line to east of Broadway.

Work will progress as a moving operation east from Illinois. Once completed in early August, the westbound lanes of the I-80/94 will have four through lanes and a continuous merge lane between exits from I-65 to the state line.
